The recipients of the letters saw visions of wealth coming to them by simply marrying a beautiful young woman. The last part of the letter, however, stated that the wooer would be required to sent on $25 as a guarantee of good faith and to pay the preliminary expenses of the wedding. It is said that copies of these letters were sent to a large number of Boston men. Of this number many sent the required $25, and there the correspondence dropped. The poor spelling in the letter did much to expose the swindle. A
